WHITE BUFFALO LAND TRUST

Join us as a sponsor for Red, White, and Blues featuring the Doublewide Kings, a benefit for White Buffalo Land Trust.

On Saturday, July 6 we invite you for an afternoon of sipping wines, tasty BBQ, and dancing to the blues at the iconic Buttonwood Farm & Vineyard. All sponsorship proceeds from this event will go towards White Buffalo Land Trust.

White Buffalo Land Trust is a Santa Barbara-based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization focused on restoring our ecosystem through agriculture. The cornerstone of our work is the 1,000-acre Center for Regenerative Agriculture at Jalama Canyon Ranch where we work to nourish people and planet for a more resilient and bountiful future.

Buttonwood Farm & Vineyard is a leader within the Santa Ynez Valley agricultural community and shares a vision of a thriving agriculture and food system in our region.

100% of the sponsorship proceeds from Red, White, and Blues will provide essential funding to ensure the legacy of White Buffalo Land Trust and the Jalama Canyon Ranch as a global hub for regenerative land stewardship. In addition to the exclusive benefits that come from sponsorship, your generous contribution will support the reimagining of our food and agriculture system in our region and beyond.

We invite you to become rooted in our mission by becoming a Pollinator Patriot, Regenerative Revolutionary, or Soil Soldier sponsor. Attached you will find more information about the different sponsorship opportunities.

With gratitude,

White Buffalo Land Trust was founded in honor of the life, work, and love of Lyndsey McMorro. Her passion for the well-being of people, communities, and planet continues to inspire our work and is an invitation for everyone to participate in the regeneration and healing of the earth, and the heart.
